SEASON OUTLOOK

TERPS LOOKING FOR 10TH TRIP TO NCAA TOURNAMENT

It's easy to see why first-year head coach Brian Pensky is optimistic about the 2005 Maryland women's soccer team. The Terps return nine starters from a team that advanced to the NCAA's Sweet 16, defeated three top-10 teams and twice took perennial powerhouse North Carolina to double-overtime.

But Pensky also knows there is reason for cautious optimism – namely trying to incorporate his style of play, while taking on the toughest schedule in all of Division I women's soccer.

"There is so much to be excited about with this team," says Pensky, who took over the reins of the Terrapin program after Shannon Higgins-Cirovski stepped down last spring. "We have tremendous soccer players, some of the best in the nation at their positions.

"But you just never know how a team is going to come together until they actually get on the field and have to perform. And with our schedule there really isn't any time to waste. That said, we have some good leaders on this team who want to take this program in the right direction."

A quick glance can tell anyone that the Terps lose only two defenders from their starting 11 from 2004, but that doesn't mean it will be easy to pencil in a lineup. A new coach brings new ideas and a new style of play, which Pensky says will be a work in progress throughout the season.

"We're going to have to see where people fit in with the style we want to play," says Pensky. "We have a lot of players who can be successful at more than one position in more than one formation, and we're going to try to take advantage of all our options."

With that in mind, here's a breakdown of the 2005 Terps women's soccer team:

FORWARDS

A year ago, Maryland's offense had to pick its spots and be opportunistic due to a lack of depth created by injuries. The result was just 23 goals in 20 games. This season, Pensky's team will not lack for firepower up front with three-time All-ACC honoree Kimmy Francis leading the charge.

Kimmy Francis

The senior from Richboro, Pa., was second on the team in 2004 with 17 points and six goals, while leading the squad with five assists. Francis' career at Maryland has been slowed somewhat by nagging injuries, yet she has made a steady climb up the record books. She currently ranks among the top 10 in career points (7th, 57), goals (8th, 19), game-winning goals (T-3rd, 8), assists (T-4th, 19) and shots (T-3rd, 172).

"Kimmy is one of the most creative offensive players in the ACC," says Pensky. "She does some special things on the field that makes the team better. She can make things happen herself or she can create for her teammates."

Francis' running-mate up top is expected to be sophomore Kelly Rozumalski. The Middleburgh, N.Y., native was an ACC all-freshman team selection last year after scoring three goals and firing 42 shots, despite being hindered with leg problems for much of the latter part of the season. Rozumalski is a gifted finisher, with the speed to create space and open up passing lanes for Francis.

Senior Melissa Anderson will also be in the mix at forward. After missing each of the last two seasons with separate knee injuries, the Annapolis, Md., native is, according to Pensky, ready to finish off her career in the right way.

A few freshmen will also provide depth at forward. After missing her senior season at The Bullis School with a knee injury, Kimmy Bunting has rehabbed and played with the Bethesda Excel club team this summer, helping lead them to nationals fo the third straight year. Kaila Sciascia is a skillful and intelligent player, who was a member of the U-17 Region I team and was a call-up to the U-17 National team.

"Kimmy Bunting and Kaila, although they are freshmen, both bring high-leve experience to the table. I expect both of them to get on the field this season ... i might just be a question fo where."

In addition to Anderson, Bunting and Sciascia, freshman Lauren Sands anc several midfielders could also see time at forward throughout the season.

"Kimmy Francis and Kelly complement each other well," says Pensky. "We know those two are capable of creating scoring opportunities for themselves, each othe and our midfielders when they come forward. We also have several midfielders who can play up top, which gives us some flexibility in how we want to play anc how we can attack our opponents."

MIDFIELD

The deepest position on the roster starts with one of the most dominant players in all of college soccer. Mallory Mahar earned first team All-ACC honors last season after leading the Terps with 22 points on nine goals and four assists. A physical presence, the senior from Medina, Ohio, can take over a game and has a knack for making the big play, as evidenced by her four game-winning goals in 2004.

Mallory Mahar

"Opposing coaches will agree that Mal is a handful," says Pensky. "She is great in the air at both the offensive and defensive ends. She's willing to put her body at risk in the final third of the field to get on the end of a cross."

Also in center midfield is sophomore Nataly Arias has made a name for herself across the country with her fluid style. The sophomore from Alexandria, Va., was a third team freshman All-American by SoccerBuzz after finishing third on the squad with eight points on two goals and four assists. Her strong right leg was showcased with a 35-yard scoring blast that tied No. 14 Florida State, 1-1.

"Nataly is an extremely technical player," says Pensky. "What most people don' realize is that she is also one of the hardest working individuals on the team. I have no doubt that's going to continue and she will progress into a special player."

On the wings, Pensky is looking for players who can get forward and stretc opposing defenses, and he's got the perfect outside midfielder for that scheme in Simone Dekker. The senior from Ringwood, N.J., who was tied for fourth o the team in points and goals a year ago, has both the speed and quickness t extend defenders and still recover to support on the defensive end. Also capable of playing forward, Dekker is on the verge of cracking the school's top 20 lists fo career points and goals.

"The thing we like about Simone is that she can flat out run all day long," say Pensky. "She is extremely consistent. You know what you're going to get wit Simone and there is tremendous value in that."

The other outside midfielder spot will be up for grabs during fall camp, but amon the contenders is sophomore Stevie Dunning, who tallied two assists despit suffering through numerous injuries during her freshman season that limited he playing time.

FEAR THE TURTLE
2005 MARYLAND WOMEN'S SOCCER

"Stevie could also be used as a central midfielder or as an attacking wingback," says Pensky. "She's going to surprise some people this season."

Junior college transfer Melissa Heintz will be looking to carve out playing time in the midfield. A second team All-American at Santa Rosa JC, Heintz scored 14 goals to go along with 13 assists. She could also see time at forward.

Junior Sarah Sample is expected to make a bid for playing time in the midfield as well. A tall player with good skills, Sample is another attacking player that could fit Pensky's style of play well. The transfer was an All-Atlantic 10 honoree in 2004 at George Washington after leading the Colonials with 14 points on six goals and two assists.

"Sarah is extremely versatile," says Pensky. "She's a valuable player because she can play anywhere in the midfield or as a second striker."

Providing depth in the midfield will be sophomores Shelly McDuff, who saw action in 17 games as a freshman with three starts, and Jacquie Shields, senior Lauren Desobry, and freshman Hannah Madej.

"I feel very good about our midfielders," says Pensky. "We have several of the best center midfielders in the country and a number of options for the outside positions. For the first time in a few seasons, this position has depth, as I expect Shelly, Jacquie, Lauren and Hannah all to compete for playing time. "

- HEAD COACH BRIAN PENSKY

DEFENSE

While the Terps have nine newcomers on the team this season, the most important addition is the return of sophomore centerback Ashly Kennedy. The 2003 honorable mention freshman All-American missed the entire 2004 campaign with a knee injury, but returned for spring practices in better shape than she left in 2003.

"Getting Ashly back is huge for this team," says Pensky. "Not only is she a talented player, but she's an inspirational leader. She's been here every day over the summer getting ready for the season and is fit and ready to go. We're fortunate that she's going to be our centerback for the next three years."

Along with Kennedy in the center of the Terp defense is underrated senior Lauren Krasko, who is a perfect blend of speed, quickness and strength. Even though she's not the biggest defender in the country at 5-5, Krasko is not afraid to throw her body around to make a play.

Lauren Krasko

"Lauren is an excellent 1-v-1 defender," says Pensky. "She can run with the fastest players in the country. Lauren has been unheralded in this program, but she will be a critical component for us this year."

Providing depth at centerback will be sophomore Lauren Gamble, who did not see varsity action last year as a freshman, but is a strong, physical defender, who will be healthy for the first time in 16 months.

While the centerback spots are set, the outside defender positions are shaping up to be preseason battlegrounds. Senior Danielle Malagari returns at one wide defensive spot, but will be challenged for playing time by a host of freshmen. The Clarksburg, Md., native started all 20 games last season, assisting on two goals, and is at the top of the depth chart heading into the fall.

"I have been very pleased with the effort Danielle has put in this spring and summer," says Pensky. "She has been here working hard and it is becoming evident in her fitness level. Danielle is a great server of the ball and if she can be an up-and-down threat, she will be a huge factor this season."

Battling for the starting spot vacated by graduated senior Lindsay Niehaus are freshmen Aimee Bresani and Amanda Paizs, as well as several of the aforementioned midfielders.

"We're expecting Aimee and Mandy to be ready to come in and contribute right away," says Pensky. "They are versatile players who will each bring something to the table.

"Bottom line, we are looking for players that are able to get forward and attack out of the back, and at the same time, not forget about their defensive responsibilities."

GOALKEEPER

One reason Coach Pensky can be confident in his defense is all-Mid-Atlantic goalkeeper Nikki Resnick, who was simply sensational for the Terps after transferring from Colorado.

All the junior from Boca Raton, Fla., did during her sophomore season was register seven shutouts, including a 1-0 blanking of No. 2-seed Penn State in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, make 115 saves (.833 save pct.), and play all 1,926 minutes.

"Nikki is a great goalkeeper," says Pensky. "It took people a little while to catch on last year, but by the end of the season they were starting to notice her and what she was doing.

"There are so many things about Nikki's game to love – she's a flyer, quick as a cat, great hands, and makes saves that no one expects or even thinks that she can make. She's one of the most unassuming players on the team, but she might be the most competitive."

Backing up Resnick will be junior Anna Sheveland, who missed the entire 2004 season due to a thumb injury.

"I'm glad that Anna will be healthy enough to compete this season," says Pensky. "I look forward to her challenging Nikki this fall."

Sophomore Lindsay Simpson will be forced to sit out the season after undergoing ankle surgery in August.

"Lindsay has had a rough year," says Pensky. "Hopefully things go well and she makes a full recovery. I'd love to see the day where a 100% healthy Lindsay Simpson suits up for this team."

SCHEDULE

The Terps' 2004 schedule was the toughest in the country, and this season it looks to be that way again.

The ACC is the premier women's soccer conference in the country, with eight teams receiving bids to the NCAA Tournament last year. Add to that mix ACC newcomer Boston College, which advanced to the third round of the NCAAs out of the Big East, and the conference is even more competitive.

"There's never an easy game in the ACC," says Pensky. "But this year every game is even more important, because only the top eight teams advance to the ACC Tournament."

Maryland's ACC schedule is highlighted by home games vs. Wake Forest (Sept. 30), North Carolina (Oct. 2), NC State (Oct. 13), Virginia Tech (Oct. 19) and Boston College (Oct. 29). The Terps will travel to meet Clemson (Sept. 22), Florida State (Oct. 6), Miami (Oct. 9), Duke (Oct. 16) and Virginia (Oct. 23).

Before Pensky's troops even get to their conference schedule they have to get through a grueling non-conference lineup. After a season-opening homestand with Towson and Rhode Island, the Terps travel to the Notre Dame Invitational to play games against 2004 national champion Notre Dame and 2004 Big East champion Connecticut.

Maryland returns home for the Maryland/adidas Classic with Rutgers, Villanova and UC Santa Barbara, before wrapping up their non-conference schedule with Penn State and Yale.

"Our team's health will be a key to our success," says Pensky. "With a challenging schedule like this, we will be looking to go 14 to 18 players deep in most games."

HEAD COACH BRIAN PENSKY

FIRST SEASON AT MARYLAND • EMORY '91

Brian Pensky was hired as Maryland's new head coach for its women's soccer program on May 18, 2005. Pensky, who helped the men's soccer team to College Cup appearances in each of his three seasons with the program, succeeds Shannon Higgins-Cirovski who resigned in March.

Pensky, who has served as a men's and women's assistant coach at the collegiate level, helped the Terrapin men's soccer team to 57 wins over the past three seasons, including the ACC Tournament title in 2002 and regular season crown in 2003. In 2004, CollegeSoccerNews.com named Pensky one of the top assistant coaches in the nation.

Prior to working under Sasho Cirovski for the past three seasons, where he was involved in all facets of the program, Pensky was an assistant at Loyola College where he helped the Greyhound women's team win the 2001 MAAC Conference Tournament and earn a bid to the NCAA Tournament in his one season with the program. He came to Loyola after spending three years as an assistant coach in George Washington's women's soccer program.

Pensky has also been involved with the Maryland girls' Olympic Development Program team since 1997. He served as an assistant coach for the Under-15 team from 1999-2000, helping that squad to the 1999 Region I championship and a national runner-up finish in 2000.

In the spring of 2000, he took over as head coach of the U-16 team and led it to a regional championship. In 2001, he worked with the U-16 ODP team and finished as the regional runner-up. Pensky spent the summer of 2001 coaching the W-League's Maryland Pride, which reached the Final Four and won the Eastern Conference championship.

He began his coaching career at the Bullis School in Potomac, Md., where he later went on to teach and eventually piloted the boys' soccer team from 1996-98. While at the Bullis School, he was named 1997 High School Coach of the Year by the Maryland Ledger and paced the 18-1-1 IAC champions to a No. 13 ranking in the nation.

In addition to his college and high school coaching experience, Pensky coached the Bethesda Soccer Club from 1991-99.

Pensky holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Emory University, as well as an "A" license from the United States Soccer Federation, an NSCAA Premier and NSCAA goalkeeping diploma.

Pensky and his wife, Abby, have three children, twins Will and Alex who turned three in January, and Ben, who turned one in March. The Pensky family resides in Kensington, Md.

IN EACH OF PENSKY'S THREE SEASONS WITH THE MARYLAND MEN'S TEAM, THE TERPS REACHED THE FINAL FOUR.

COACHING STAFF

ALI WOLFF-TOOLE

ASSISTANT COACH
MARYLAND '01
SECOND YEAR AT MARYLAND

Bringing an unending competitive spirit and a knowledge of the finer points of the game, Ali Wolff-Toole begins her second season as an assistant coach, working primarily with the goalkeepers. Her responsibilities also include recruiting and overseeing general aspects of the women's soccer program.

During her first season at Maryland, Wolff-Toole was instrumental in the development of third team All-Mid-Atlantic goalkeeper Nikki Resnick, who made 115 saves in 2004, which ranks second on the school's single-season record list. Under Wolff-Toole's tutelage, Resnick set school NCAA Tournament records with two shutouts, including a 1-0 victory that snapped No. 2-seed Penn State's 39-game-winning streak at Jeffrey Field, en route to a berth in the Sweet 16.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Wolff-Toole served as an assistant coach at Loyola College for two years. At Loyola, she was responsible for training the Greyhound goalkeepers and has also coached at Loyola and Maryland women's soccer camps.

Wolff-Toole was a goalkeeper for Maryland from 1997-2001 and still ranks among the all-time leaders in shutouts (1st, 20.5), games played (2nd, 68), games started (2nd, 63), minutes played (2nd, 5,513), saves (3rd, 254) and goals against average (5th, 1.57). An All-ACC honoree during her senior campaign in 2001, Wolff-Toole led all conference keepers in shutouts against conference opponents (three) and was among the ACC leaders with nine total shutouts. Her save percentage that season, .765, was also among the best in the conference.

Ali married Maryland alum and former Terp golfer Peter Toole on August 9, 2003. Wolff-Toole graduated from Maryland in 2001 with a bachelor of science degree in kinesiology.

CINDY WOLF

ASSISTANT COACH
SYRACUSE '01
FIRST YEAR AT MARYLAND

In her first season on Coach Brian Pensky's staff, former Big East Scholar-Athlete of the Year Cindy Wolf returns to her home state, bringing with her a passion for the game of soccer and a winning attitude.

"We are excited to have Cindy join our staff," said Pensky. "She comes to Maryland with an appreciation for this university – especially having grown up in Maryland. Cindy's experiences with the Region I ODP Program, U.S. Soccer and Syracuse are going to benefit this program tremendously. On a personal level, she will be a terrific role model for our student-athletes."

Wolf joins the Terps after serving as an assistant coach at Syracuse University since August 2004, where she was responsible for assisting the head coach with recruiting and team management. She also worked as the assistant director of the Syracuse women's soccer camps.

Prior to returning to Syracuse, the 2001 SU graduate served as the national team coordinator for U.S. Soccer. Her responsibilities included organizing, planning, and executing training camps and international events for the under-19 women's national soccer team. In addition, Wolf worked in preparation for the 2004 under-19 World Championships in Thailand.

Wolf was a member of the Orange soccer team from 1997 to 2000, serving as captain as a sophomore, junior and senior. In 2001, Wolf was named the BIG EAST Scholar-Athlete of the Year. She was also the first female president of the Student-Athlete Council in 2000-01.

She began her coaching career in 2001 and was an Olympic Development coach with the Maryland State Youth Soccer Association from 2001-03, working with the under-13 and under-15 age groups. During that time, Wolf was also the assistant women's soccer coach at Villa Julie College. She also continued her playing career, serving as a player/coach for the Maryland Pepsi Pride of the W-League from 2001-03.

Wolf graduated cum laude from Syracuse with a bachelor's degree in public relations. She is currently finishing her master's degree in business administration at Loyola College.

JACQUIE SHIELDS

MIDFIELDER/DEFENDER
5-8 • SOPHOMORE
WOODBURY, N.J.
WEST DEPTFORD HS

PENSKY'S TAKE

"Jackie is continuing to develop in this program. She is a physical player who tackles hard. When she brings that mentality, Jackie is an effective player."

On Shields: A back-up midfielder who has the potential to be a contributor in her second season ... could also see time in the backfield ... good size and strength ... needs to work on her conditioning ... has a tremendous upside ... strong with both feet ... needs to become more consistent off the ball.

As a freshman (2004): Showed promise during the preseason, but sprained MCL during first scrimmage ... returned from injury only to tear her ACL and missed the entire season.

Before Maryland: Standout player at West Deptford High School in New Jersey ... two-time team captain ... an All-New Jersey selection as a junior and senior ... named first-team All-Conference as a sophomore, junior and senior as she led Gloucester County in goals in all three seasons ... honored as first-team All-South Jersey, first-team Courier-Post and All-Gloucester Country Times as a junior and senior ... named to Philadelphia Inquirer's All-South Jersey second team in 2002 and 2003... one of the top 20 players in New Jersey according to the New Jersey Girls Soccer Association ... served as captain of the South Jersey Senior All-Star Team and played for the New Jersey State All-Star Team ... 2004 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

TERPS ADVANCE TO NCAA SWEET 16 • DEFEAT 3 TOP-10 TEAMS

FINAL ANALYSIS

- The Maryland Terrapins finished the 2004 season with a remarkable run in the NCAA Tournament that came to an end with a 1-0 loss in Seattle, Wash., to the No. 15-seed Washington Huskies.

- Maryland finished with a record of 9-7-4 on the season, including impressive wins over No. 3 UCLA, No. 10 Duke and No. 2-seed in the NCAA Tournament Penn State, which snapped the Nittany Lions' 39-game-winning streak at Jeffery Field.

A LOOK BACK AT THE 2004 NCAA TOURNAMENT

- Maryland saw its tournament dreams and its season end with a 1-0 loss to the No. 15 seeded Washington Huskies at Husky Soccer Field in Seattle, Wash. Two-time Pac-10 Player of the Year Tina Frimpong scored the game's only goal by depositing a rebound off Terps' goalkeeper Nikki Resnick. Resnick, who has been brilliant throught the season, and especially during the ACC and NCAA Tournaments, stopped eight shots during the game. The Terrapin offense struggled however and could only muster one shot on the Husky goal. Junior forward Kimmy Francis valiantly tried to compete, but a knee injury sustained in the Penn State win hampered her play significantly.

- The Terps snapped Penn State's 39-game home winning streak and advanced to the NCAA's Sweet Sixteen with a 1-0 win in the second round of the NCAA Tournament on Nov. 14 at Jeffrey Field. Mallory Mahar, a first team All-ACC selection, scored the game's lone goal in the 33rd minute off a header that trickled into the right lower 90 of the Penn State goal. Danielle Malagari , who started the play on a free kick following a Nittany Lion foul, forwarded the ball to Kimmy Francis in the far right corner of the Penn State defensive zone. Francis crossed the ball to about the six yard line where Mahar dove to get a piece of the ball, redirecting it for the goal. Goalkeeper Nikki Resnick stopped 10 shots for Maryland on the afternoon, including two amazing stops in one-on-one situations with Penn State's All-American forward Tiffany Weimer.

- Mallory Mahar scored one goal and assisted on two others to lead the University of Maryland women's soccer team to a 3-0 victory over Loyola Friday night at Jeffery Field in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Kelly Rozumalski scored her third goal of the season off Mahar's first assist to make the score 2-0 in the 53rd minute. Simone Dekker capped the scoring with her second goal of the season for the 3-0 win.

MAHAR NAMED TO ALL-REGIONAL TEAM

- Maryland midfielder Mallory Mahar continued to rack up post-season honors, being named to the NSCAA/adidas Division I All-Mid-Atlantic Second Team on Tuesday.

- This is the third consecutive season Mahar has been named to the All-Mid-Atlantic team. The native of Medina, Ohio, was a third team selection in her freshman and sophomore seasons before being named to the second team this year. Mahar was also a first team All-ACC selection this season.

FIVE TERPS HONORED BY SOCCER BUZZ

- Maryland women's soccer had five players honored by Soccer Buzz for their outstanding play in 2004. Mallory Mahar was named a third team All-American, becoming the Terps' first All-American since 1998. Mahar was also a first team All-Mid-Atlantic selection. Kimmy Francis and Nikki Resnick were named to the All-Mid-Atlantic third team. Nataly Arias was named to the Freshman All-America third team, as well as the All-Freshman Mid-Atlantic team, along with teammate Kelly Rozumalski.

PLAYING THE BEST

- Once again, Higgins-Cirovski scheduled the nation's toughest schedule, according to soccer-rating.com. The Terps played 12 of the other 63 teams in the NCAA Tournament field, including the top three seeds. The Terps have played: No. 1 seed North Carolina (1-2 (2ot) loss, Sept. 24; 1-0 (2ot) loss, Nov. 3), No. 2-seed Penn State (0-6 loss, Oct. 27; 1-0 win, Nov. 14), No. 3 seed Virginia (0-0 tie, Oct. 5), No. 14 seed UCLA (2-1 win, Sept. 12), No. 15 seed Washington (0-1 loss, Nov. 20) Loyola (3-0 win, Nov. 12), Duke (1-0 win, Oct. 23), Florida State (1-1 tie, Oct. 13), Wake Forest (2-0 loss, Oct. 16), Clemson (1-0 win, Oct. 2), Virginia Tech (0-2 loss, Sept. 2), and William & Mary (1-1 tie, Aug. 29).

N14, '04	Maryland 1, #5 Penn St. 0 (NCAA)

PSU was the No. 2-seed in the tournament.

- During five of Higgins-Cirovski's six seasons at Maryland, she led the Terps to at least one upset win or tie of a top-10 ranked team, leading Maryland to a 4-3 win at No. 9 Duke on Sept. 19, 1999 and a 2-1 victory over Clemson on Oct. 17, 1999; a 3-1 win over No. 4 Penn State on Aug. 29, 2000; a 1-0 overtime over No. 8 Clemson on Oct. 13, 2001 and a 1-1 tie at No. 2 North Carolina last season, on Nov. 1, 2002. Most recently, the Terps stunned No. 3 UCLA 2-1 at the Virginia Soccer Classic on Sept. 12, 2004. A month and a half later, Maryland beat No. 10 Duke 1-0 in overtime at Ludwig Field. The Terps topped all of those victories with a 1-0 shutout of No. 2-seed Penn State in the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

The win also snapped the Nittany Lions 39-game home winning streak and was head coach Paula Wilkins' first ever loss at Jeffrey Field.

ACC LEADS THE WAY, BUT NONE MAKE ELITE 8

- The ACC, widely regarded as the best women's soccer conference in the country, was represented in the 2004 NCAA Tournament by eight schools, one-eighth of the entire field.

- Four of the eight ACC teams won its first round match with three (No. 1 seed North Carolina, Duke and Maryland) advancing to the Sweet Sixteen. However, none of those three teams were able to make it to the Elite Eight.

RESNICK POSTS A RECORD-SETTING SEASON

- When the season started Nikki Resnick was competing for a starting position, now 20 games later, she has not only proved to be worthy of the starting spot, she placed herself on several single-season record lists.

- With a limited roster and the nation's toughest schedule to face, Resnick was certainly busy in the Maryland net last season. She finished the year second on the single-season saves list with 115, trailing only Heather Rowe's 134 from the 1989 season. That 1989 team finished the season with a 3-12-1 record.

- Resnick is fourth on the single-season shutout list with seven, trailing a trio of former Terps who posted nine. The Boca Raton, Fla., native's shutouts weren't easy either, as she blanked No. 5 Penn St., No. 6 Virginia, No. 10 Duke, and NCAA participant Clemson.

- Resnick also set numerous sophomore-season goalkeeping records. She finished the 2004 season as the top sophomore keeper in minutes played (1835:51), shuouts (seven) and goalkeeper games played with 20.

FRANCIS AND MAHAR MOVED UP THE CHARTS

- With her two-goal, four-point effort at Navy, Kimmy Francis is all alone in seventh spot on Maryland's all-time points chart with 57. Her six goals on the season have Francis in eighth on the career goals chart with 19.

- Not just a goal scorer, Francis is also among the all-time leaders in assists. Her five assists on the season lead the team and tied her for fourth on the career chart with 19. The next closest current Terp is Simone Dekker, who sits in 17th place, with nine career assists.

- Also charging up the all-time charts is Mallory Mahar. With nine goals last season, Mahar is tied for 10th on the all-time list with 18. Mahar is also moving up the career points list. The team leader with 22 points, a career high, Mahar has 44 for her career, and is tied for 10th place.

NCAA NOTES

MAHAR MAKES HER MARK

- During their run through this season's NCAA Tournament midfielder Mallory Mahar wrote her own chapter in Maryland's postseason record book.

- With her two assists in the 3-0 shutout of Loyola in the first round, Mallory Mahar tied Emmy Harbo and Valerie Lawrence for the most assists in a single game.

- Mahar is also tied with Keri Sarver for the most game-winning goals in a single tournament with two. Sarver netted two game-winners in 1996, while Mahar had both for the Terps in 2004.

- One record Mahar does not have to share is the fastest goal from the start of a match. The previous record was with 10:56 elapsed by Tricia Taliaferro in 1995 vs. James Madison. Mahar scored with just 8:18 off the clock in the 3-0 win over Loyola.

RECORDS GALORE FOR RESNICK

- Goalkeeper Nikki Resnick also made the postseason goalkeeper records her own personal scrapbook.

- The native of Boca Raton, Fla., set the Terrapin records for most saves in an NCAA game with 10 vs. Penn State and most saves in a single tournament with 20. Current Terps assistant coach Ali Wolff-Toole was the record holder in both with eight and 10, respectively.

- Resnick is the first goalkeeper in the school's history to record two shutouts in NCAA play, either in a single tournament or a career. The two shutouts in the 2004 NCAA Tournament raised her season total to seven, which is fourth on the all-time single-season list.

NIEHAUS COMES UP ONE SHORT

- When she steped onto the field against Washington, senior defender Lindsay Niehaus made her seventh appearance in NCAA Tournament play for the Terrapins. The record for career NCAA games played in is eight, which is shared by Keri Sarver (1995-98), Robin McCullough (1995-98) and Emily Janss (1996-99).

- The Washington game was also the third NCAA game of the season for the Terps, which tied the Maryland record for the most games played in a single tournament. The Terrapins also played three games in 1996, reaching the Elite Eight, before falling to No. seed Notre Dame, 2-1.

2004 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1 - AUG. 27

MARYLAND 1
TOWSON.....0 (OT)

TOWSON, Md. - Mallory Mahar scored the game-winning goal in the final minute of the first overtime period at Towson Center Field Friday, lifting the University of Maryland women's soccer team to a season-opening victory over the host Tigers, 1-0. In the first game of the season for both teams, Maryland improved its record to 1-0, while Towson fell to 0-1.

The golden goal for Maryland began with Simone Dekker gathering the ball in the midfield and finding freshman Nataly Arias on the right side. Mahar one-touched the Arias cross and found the left side of the net past Towson goalkeeper Brandi Daniels.

For Mahar, it was her first goal of the young season and the 10th of her career (fourth game-winner). Arias, making her debut for the Terps, tallied her first career assist.

The two teams played to a scoreless tie after 90 minutes of physical soccer. Towson jumped on the offensive early, as Emma Noonan had a shot hit the crossbar in the second minute of the game. After that early Tiger opportunity, however, Maryland dominated possession of the ball and outshot Towson in the first half, 16-3.

The best scoring chance for Maryland in the first half was with six minutes left to play as Kimmy Francis took a corner kick from the left side. When her service was punched away by the keeper Daniels, Terp defender Danielle Malagari served the ball back into the box and a Mahar header went just wide.

In the second half, Towson had scoring chances but Terrapin goalkeeper Nikki Resnick, making her first start in a Terrapin uniform, made several crucial saves to keep the score tied after regulation. Included in her strong effort was a save of a close-range shot by Meaghan Brooks with less than three minutes left in the game.

Resnick ended the day with five saves. Daniels also had a strong showing in goal for Towson with nine saves.

The Terrapins outshot Towson, 30-10, and they increase their all-time record against the Tigers to 5-0-0.

GAME 2 - AUG. 29

WILLIAM & MARY 1
MARYLAND 1

GERMANTOWN, Md. - The Maryland women's soccer team, coming off a 1-0 overtime victory at Towson on Friday, again went into overtime on Sunday as it played William & Mary to a 1-1 tie.

Junior Mallory Mahar tied the game in the 20th minute with her second goal of the season - a header off a Kimmy Francis corner kick - with neither team being able to convert over the rest of regulation play and two overtime periods.

William & Mary got scoring started in the 15th minute when Katie Hogwood fired a shot off the crossbar, which teammate Taline Tahmassian rebounded and buried into the Terps' empty net. Maryland goalkeeper Nikki Resnick came out of her box to head out a William & Mary chip over the Terp defense and went down on a collision with a Tribe forward, opening up the net for Tahmassian's goal. Resnick finished the game with three saves and allowed just that Tahmassian goal over her 110 minutes in net.

Less than six minutes later, Mahar pulled the Terps into a 1-1 deadlock when she headed in her second goal of the season with 25:01 remaining in the first half. The junior midfielder scored three goals (all on headers) in the Terps' two pre-season games and scored the game-winner in the Terps' win at Towson on Friday.

Maryland had three scoring chances in the second half, but was unable to convert. In the 50th minute of the game, Mahar re-directed a Danielle Malagari pass just wide of the goal. Less than five minutes later, the Terps again were on the Tribe doorstep when freshman Kelly Rozumalski fired a shot off the crossbar, and Simone Dekker followed with a shot that went over the Tribe's net.

The two overtime periods featured a combined four shots, as both squads struggled to break through the other's defense. The Terps took three of those shots (all in the first overtime) and finished the game with a 16-8 advantage in shots and a 13-5 edge in corner kicks.

Head Coach Shannon Higgins-Cirovski was encouraged by the team's effort, saying, "I thought we played well. We put more opportunities on goal tonight, and I think we're seeing glimpses of the team we can be."

GAME 3 - SEPT. 2

VIRGINIA TECH 2
MARYLAND 0

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Maryland women's soccer team dropped its first game of the 2004 season tonight, as Virginia Tech's Ashley Stinson tallied goals at the 19:32 and 21:08 marks to put the Hokies up by a 2-0 margin midway through the first half. Maryland fell by that same 2-0 margin, as it was unable to overcome the early first-half deficit.

The Hokies seized momentum early in the first half, taking four shots before the Terps tallied their first. Kimmy Francis had the team's first opportunity at the 14:15 mark when she controlled a ball in the Virginia Tech box, turned and fired a left-footed shot at Hokie netminder, Mallory Soldner. Soldner made a diving save to her left - one of eight saves on the night - and turned Francis away.

The Terps continued to force the action and were presented another scoring opportunity when Francis connected with Mallory Mahar on a corner kick. Mahar headed the Francis pass hard to the near post, but again Soldner made the save to her left.

Minutes later, Stinson scored the first of her two goals on the night - the freshman tallied five in two games this week - when she was able to volley a ball over the top of Terp keeper Nikki Resnick .

Less than two minutes later, Stinson again found the back of the net, this time floating a ball over Resnick and into the bottom left corner of the Terp net. The goal put the Hokies up by a 2-0 margin, as Maryland gave up more than one goal in a contest for the first time in 13 games.

The Terps put the pressure back on the Hokie defense in the second half, holding a 12-7 advantage in shots in the second frame. But Virginia Tech's Mallory Soldner was up to the challenge, turning away five Maryland shots in the second half, including another sprawling save- this time on a Kelly Rozumalski blast from just inside the box.

The team also held an advantage in corner kicks in the second half, tallying five corners to the Hokies' 1, but were unable to beat Soldner, as the Hokies held on for a 2-0 win.

SOUTH CAROLINA 2
MARYLAND 5

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - Down 1-0 at the half the University of Maryland women's soccer team exploded for five second half goals to beat South Carolina 5-2 at the Virginia Soccer Classic.

The scoring came fast and furious right from the start of the second half. Junior midfielder Mallory Mahar tied the match for the Terps in the 46th minute with a header off a cross from senior Danielle Malagari. Just two minutes later freshman Kelly Rozumalski scored her first collegiate goal off an assist from fellow freshman Nataly Arias in the 48th minute.

Arias would then go on to score the game winner, her first goal of the 2004 season, in the 54th minute off an assist from junior Kimmy Francis. Mahar would add her second of the game, third on the season, on a header off of a cross from Francis.

Francis would then go on to wrap up the scoring with an unassisted goal from 40 yards out that caught the South Carolina keeper out of position.

MARYLAND 2
No. 3 UCLA 1

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - The University of Maryland women's soccer team stunned No. 3 UCLA 2-1 Sunday afternoon at Klockner Stadium in the Virginia Soccer Classic.

The Terps used an opportunistic offensive attack and a tenacious defensive effort to record its first win over a ranked opponent since last November when the Terps defeated No. 23 Clemson 2-1 on November 5. It was Maryland's first win over a top 10 team since October 13, 2001, when the Terps beat Clemson 1-0 in overtime.

Freshman Kelly Rozumalski got Maryland on the scoreboard just under seven minutes into the match on a breakaway goal off a through-ball from freshman Carissa Gilbert.

The Terps would take a 2-0 lead with five minutes remaining in the first half when junior Mallory Mahar found junior Kimmy Francis on a breakaway for Francis' second goal of the tournament.

UCLA pressured the Maryland defense all afternoon, but Terp goalkeeper Nikki Resnick was up to the challenge stopping eight of nine shots on goal. In total the Bruins outshot Maryland 17-7.

UCLA managed to trim the lead to 2-1 on a goal by Danesha Adams, her sixth goal on the season, in the 64th minute.

Virginia won the tournament by one goal on goal differential. Francis, Mahar and Resnick were named to the all-tournament team.

GAME 6 - SEPT. 19

MIAMI 2

Coral Gables, Fla. - The University of Maryland women's soccer team lost to ACC newcomer Miami 2-1 at Cobb Field in Coral Gables, Fla., Sunday afternoon.

The match was tied 0-0 at the half, which was extended due to a 30-minute lightning delay, but Hurricane freshman Lindsay Curtin deflected a shot off Terrapin goalkeeper Nikki Resnick to give Miami a 1-0 lead in the 60th minute.

Maryland answered back just three minutes later when junior midfielder Simone Dekker netted her first goal of the season off a shot to the far post. Dekker's goal was assisted by Carissa Gilbert, her second assist on the season.

The match would stay tied at 1-1 until the 85th minute when Sheuneen Ta threaded a pass to Cynthia Dongo, who scored the game winner.

The loss dropped the Terrapins to 3-2-1 on the season, 0-2-0 in the ACC. Miami raises its overall record to 1-4-0 and 1-2-0 in the ACC.

GAME 7 - SEPT. 25

MARYLAND 1 (2OT)
No. 2 N. CAROLINA 2

Chapel Hill, N.C. - It was a game that would go down in the annals of Maryland women's soccer - almost.

A controversial foul inside the penalty box and a successful penalty kick gave No. 2 North Carolina a 2-1 over the Terps with less than three minutes remaining in the second overtime period.

Maryland shocked the 3,128 fans in attendance at Fetzer Field in the 17th minute of play when junior midfielder Mallory Mahar scored an opportunistic goal that came off a Tar Heel deflection. A Terrapin pass was blocked by a UNC defender, but found Mahar, who promptly beat Carolina's All-American goalkeeper Aly Winget for a 1-0 Maryland lead.

North Carolina went on a relentless offensive attack, but could not take advantage of numerous scoring opportunities until the 79th minute. UNC defender Jessica Maxwell hit forward Heather O'Reilly with a pass that O'Reilly chipped over Maryland goalkeeper Nikki Resnick to ties the match at 1-1.

The Terps valiantly fought in the two overtime sessions to press the Tar Heel defense, but fatigue took over and UNC out-shot Maryland 8-0 in the overtime periods (35-4 for the match). All eleven Terrapin starters played all 107 minutes, while Carolina was able to substitute and keep its players fresh for the home stretch.

The game-deciding penalty kick was called amidst a pile-up about a yard into the penalty area. All-American Kacey White took the free kick and placed it in the lower left corner of the goal for the game winner.

The loss drops Maryland's record to 3-3-1 on the season, 0-3-0 in the ACC. North Carolina, which extended it's unbeaten streak to 38 matches, improves to 8-0-1, 1-0-0 in the conference.

GAME 8 - OCT. 2

CLEMSON 0

Clemson, S.C. - Kimmy Francis' goal in the 55th minute gave the University of Maryland's women's soccer team its first ACC win of the season, a 1-0 win at Clemson on Saturday night at Riggs Field.

"This was a total team effort tonight," said Maryland head coach Shannon Higgins-Cirovski. "We had a good game plan and we really executed it well. I'm proud of the way we played against a good Clemson team. Hopefully we can take this and build some momentum through the rest of the season."

The first half saw the Terps and the Tigers trade possessions, but each team was only able to get one shot on goal. Maryland was able to pressure Clemson and force four corner kicks in the first half.

The second half saw the momentum swing to the Terps when freshman midfielder Stevie Dunning, who was making just her second career start, found Francis with a touch pass just outside the six-yard box. Francis then faked a hard shot and dinked the ball into the far right corner of the net for a 1-0 Terrapin lead.

2005 MARYLAND WOMEN'S SOCCER

Clemson turned up the pressure after giving up the goal and would outshoot Maryland 13-4 in the second half. But sophomore goalkeeper Nikki Resnick was up to the challenge, finishing the match with six saves.

Francis' goal moved her into a tie with Stephanie Magro for 10th spot on the all-time goal scoring list at Maryland with 16 goals. She also moved into eighth place on the career points list with 50.

The win was the Terrapins' fifth straight victory over Clemson, which was ranked as high as seventh in the NSCAA/adidas coaches' poll earlier in the season, and raised Maryland's season record to 4-3-1, 1-3-0 in the ACC. The one-goal margin is nothing new in the Maryland-Clemson series, as nine of the last 11 games between the two schools have been decided by one goal.

GAME 9 - OCT. 5

No. 6 VIRGINIA 0

MARYLAND 0 (2OT)

College Park, Md. - The University of Maryland battled the sixth-ranked Virginia Cavaliers to a 0-0 tie Tuesday night at Ludwig Field. The decision brings the Terps' record on the season to 4-3-2, 1-3-1, in the ACC. Virginia, after winning nine straight to start the season, is now 9-1-1 overall, 2-1-1 in the ACC.

With limited depth the Terrapins relied on a stingy defense and an opportunistic offense to dictate the pace of the match. Sophomore goalkeeper Nikki Resnick turned in another outstanding performance, stopping seven Virginia shots to record her second consecutive shutout.

The Cavaliers outshot Maryland by a 28-6 margin, but freshman midfielder Stevie Dunning had perhaps the best scoring opportunity of the match. In the 34th minute of play Dunning flicked a header that appeared to have Cavalier goalkeeper Christina de Vries beat, but the ball went over the crossbar by mere inches.

GAME 10 - OCT. 8

MARYLAND 2

NC STATE 1

College Park, Md. - Mallory Mahar scored her team-leading sixth goal of the season to lead the University of Maryland women's soccer team to a 2-1 win over NC State Friday night at Ludwig Field.

With the win the Terps improve to 5-3-2 on the season, 2-3-1 in the ACC, and moves them into seventh place in the conference. NC State falls to 7-4-2 overall, 1-4-0 in the ACC.

Maryland dominated play throughout the match, out shooting the Wolfpack 20-5, including 14-2 in the second half. But less than two minutes into the game the Wolfpack converted on their only real scoring opportunity of the game as Allie Wilkerson scored the game's first goal off a deflected pass. A scramble in front of the Maryland net was enough to keep Terps goalkeeper Nikki Resnick away from the loose ball.

The Terps tied the match in the 21st minute when Mahar scored her sixth goal of the season by hitting a well-placed shot into the top left corner of the NC State net. That goal, the 15th of her career, moves Mahar to within one of cracking the all-time goals scoring list at Maryland. Freshman Nataly Arias picked up the assist, her third of the season.

Maryland would head into halftime with a 2-1 lead when junior Simone Dekker served the ball into the box, looking for freshman Stevie Dunning The Wolfpack's Nicole Mayo beat Dunning to the ball and tried to head the ball back to her goalkeeper, Megan Connors, but the ball took a high bounce off the ground and past Connors for the Maryland goal.

The Terps had numerous scoring chances in the second half, but could not tack on an insurance goal. Mahar tried a little chip shot in the 53rd minute that beat Connors, but an unlucky bounce off the crossbar prevented the goal.

Maryland had another prime scoring opportunity in the 69th minute off a set play following a Wolfpack foul just outside the 18-yard box. Junior defender Danielle Malagari feathered a shot that had Connors fooled, but hit off the far right post. Junior Kimmy Francis was also a victim of the post on her shot in the 89th minute of play. Francis found herself one-on-one with the goalkeeper and drilled a shot that just hit off the right post.

No. 14 FLORIDA STATE .. 1

College Park, Md. - A 35-yard blast off the right foot of freshman midfielder Nataly Arias that beat Florida State keeper Joy McKenzie earned the Maryland women's soccer team a 1-1 tie with the 14th-ranked Seminoles Wednesday night at Ludwig Field.

The Terps dominated the opening 30 minutes of the first half, controlling possession of the ball and outshooting the Seminoles 6-0. Maryland's best scoring chance came following a FSU foul. Danielle Malagari sent the free kick into the Seminole box where Arias headed the ball toward the Florida State goal, but McKenzie was there to make the save.

Florida State turned the tide in the final 15 minutes of the opening period outshooting the Terrapins 7-0, including a blast from 30 yards by India Trotter that hit the crossbar.

The second half started with the two teams trading shots on goal. Then, in the 54th minute, FSU midfielder Julia Schnugg took a through-ball from Jez White and placed a shot, just outside the diving Maryland goalkeeper Nikki Resnick, into the far left corner of the net to give the Seminoles a 1-0 lead.

Florida State would hold the lead until the 76th minute when Arias scored her second goal of the season to tie the game at 1-1.

Maryland continued to dictate play in the two overtime periods, controlling the pace of play and outshooting FSU 3-2.

Resnick tied her season high for saves in a game with nine. Coming into the contest she was leading the ACC in saves per game with 5.60.

The tie extends Maryland's unbeaten streak to four games dating back to a 1-0 shutout at Clemson on October 2. Thus far in 11 games in 2004 the Terps have yet to allow an opponent to score more than two goals in any game. Only No. 2 North Carolina, No. 6 Virginia and No. 14 Florida State can boast the same for this season.

WAKE FOREST 2

Winston Salem, N.C. - The University of Maryland women's soccer team dropped a key ACC battle 2-0 to Wake Forest Saturday night at W. Dennie Spry Stadium.

Demon Deacon senior Alli Hunt scored the first goal of her career on a penalty kick in the 20th minute to give Wake Forest a 1-0 lead. The Terps had their scoring chances in the first period, including two shots on goal by junior forward Kimmy Francis, but could not convert.

Maryland came out at the start of the second half attacking the Wake Forest defense. Two corner kicks and another shot on goal by Francis were turned away by the Deacons.

The Deacons regrouped and countered the Maryland pressure with a breakaway by Sarah Kozey. Splitting two Maryland defenders Kozey fired a shot, but Terrapin goalkeeper Nikki Resnick made the save.

Resnick came up big again just a minute later. Kozey, who totaled five shots on goal in the game, took a cross into the box and redirected the ball toward the Terrapin net, but Resnick made a spectacular diving save to prevent the goal.

The game remained 1-0 until the 58th minute when the Deacons' goalkeeper, Heather Currie, punted the ball nearly 70 yards into the Maryland backfield. The ball skipped through the Terrapin defense where Kozey caught up with it and fired a shot past Resnick.

Maryland continued to pressure the Wake Forest defense for the remaining 32 minutes, but the Deacons would hold on for the 2-0 victory.

In the ACC standings, the Maryland (5-4-3, 2-4-2 ACC) loss drops the Terps into eighth place, while Wake Forest (9-5-1, 3-4-0 ACC) moves into seventh spot. The top six seeds in the ACC advance to the quarterfinals of the conference tournament, while the final four teams will need to play their way into the quarterfinals on Sunday, October 31.

NAVY 1

Annapolis, Md. - Kimmy Francis scored twice to lead the University of Maryland women's soccer team to a 3-1 victory over Navy at the Glenn Warner Soccer Facility Tuesday night.

The Terps dominated the action throughout the game, outshooting the Mids 12-4 for the game and 8-1 in the first half.

The game was scoreless until the 38th minute when junior Simone Dekker made an aggressive run up the left side of the Navy backfield and beat her defender to send a pass into the box for Francis. Francis one-touched the ball with her left heel and redirected it pas Navy goalkeeper Kim Bonafede for a 1-0 Maryland lead. Freshman Stevie Dunning also picked up an assist on the goal.

The Mids would not go down without a fight however. In the 62nd minute Terps goalkeeper Nikki Resnick left the net to track down a loose ball, but Navy's Brigette Fox beat her to the ball and shot it past the diving Resnick to know the score at 1-1.

The tie wouldn't last long, only four minutes, as junior midfielder Mallory Mahar scored the game-winning goal, depositing the ball in the top right corner of the net from seven yards out. Assisting on the goal was senior defender Jennifer Lovecchio, who picked up her first collegiate point.

Francis rounded out the scoring with her second goal of the night on a penalty kick in the 78th minute. Maryland picked up the PK on a handball in box by a Navy defender. Dekker drove the ball into the right corner of the 18-yard box when Bonafede came out of the net to try to pick up the loose ball. Dekker evaded Bonafede and served the ball into the six-yard box and the Mids' Lindsay Adlam reached out for the ball, picking up the penalty. The two goals tied a career high for Francis and marked the fourth time in her career that she has scored two goals in a game.

The win improves Maryland's record to 6-4-3 on the season and an unbeaten 4-0-1 in non-conference games. The Terps also improved to 6-0-0 all-time vs. Navy and handed the Mids their first defeat at home this season.

No. 10 DUKE 0

MARYLAND .....1 (OT)

College Park, Md. - Kimmy Francis scored in the 97th minute to break a scoreless tie and give the Maryland women's soccer team a 1-0 over No. 10 Duke Saturday night at Ludwig Field.

Junior Mallory Mahar fired a long pass from near midfield to the edge of the penalty box where Francis collected the ball, eluded two Duke defenders and rocketed the ball toward the Blue Devil net. Duke goalkeeper Allison Lipsher got a piece of the ball, but it had enough on it to trickle into the net for the game-winning goal.

The win elevated the Terps' record to 7-4-3 on the season, 3-4-2 in the ACC. It was also Maryland's second win over a Top 10 team this season, the first time that's happened since 1999. The Terps beat No. 3 UCLA 2-1 on Sept. 12. Duke drops to 12-5-0 on the season, 5-3-0 in the conference.

While the game was scoreless through regulation each team pressured the other and had opportunities to score. Just eight minutes into the game, Francis sent a corner kick into the box where a leaping Mahar made good contact with a header, but the ball hit the crossbar and was sent over the goal. That wasn't the only time the crossbar would play a part in the game however.

In the 61st minute a free kick by Duke ended up with Casey McCulskey, who entered the game with 15 goals on the season, had a clear shot at the goal, but Terps goalkeeper Nikki Resnick deflected the shot, which ricocheted off the crossbar. The ball bounced at the feet of Blue Devil Rebecca Moros, who had a wide open net to shot on, but she too found the crossbar. That deflection came to Duke's Lorraine Quinn who fired a shot wide of the Maryland net.

Blue Devil Rachel-Rose Cohen also fell victim to the crossbar in the 70th minute. Quinn sent a ball from the far right into the box and found Cohen who fired a shot that hit the crossbar.

The Terps had another brush with the crossbar in the 87th minute. Junior midfielder Simone Dekker had a clear look at the Duke goal from the far right side, but her shot hit the bottom of the crossbar and deflected out to Maryland's Nataly Arias, whose follow-up shot went over the net.

Maryland, despite 10 players playing the entire game, controlled the action at the end of the second half and carried that momentum into the overtime session. Freshman midfielder Stevie Dunning forced Lipsher to make her first save of the game in the 94th minute on a sensational bicycle kick shot.

The goal was Francis' sixth on the season and third of the week, after netting two in Maryland's 3-1 win at Navy on Tuesday. She now stands all alone in eighth place on the Terps' career goal scoring list with 19. Francis also moved into seventh place on the career points list with 55.

No. 3 PENN STATE 6

State College, Pa. - The No. 3 ranked Penn State Nittany Lions defeated the No. 19 Maryland women's soccer team 6-0 Wednesday night at Jeffery Field in State College, Pa.

The Nittany Lions jumped out to a 2-0 lead thanks to two goals from Ali Krieger in a one minute span. Krieger netted the first goal in the ninth minute on a jumping volley into the top left corner of the Maryland net. She scored a nearly identical goal off a free kick from Carmelina Moscato in the 10th minute.

"We didn't play with the focus that we need to in order to compete in big games," said Maryland head coach Shannon Higgins-Cirovski . "It was a bit of an odd game. I give Penn State credit, but our defense has played against some of the top teams in the country. I still believe that our team can compete with any team in the country when we play with focus, determination and intensity."

The Terps would hold tough and battled back to pressure the Penn State defense through the first 25 minutes of the second half. The Nittany Lions counter-attacked the Terrapin pressure and scored four goals in a 10 minute span from the 75th to 85th minutes. All-American Tiffany Weimer picked up two assists and two goals in the 4-0 run.

The loss drops the Terrapins to 7-5-3 on the season, while Penn State improved to 15-1-1. The Nittany Lions also improved their home winning streak to 37, which dates back to the 2001 season.

Maryland advances in shootout 4-2

College Park, Md. - The 19th ranked Maryland women's soccer team advanced to the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament by beating NC State 4-2 in a shootout Sunday afternoon at Ludwig Field.

Sophomore goalkeeper Nikki Resnick came up big for the Terps in the shootout, stopping two shots, including the first one, to take some of the pressure off of the Maryland shooters.

2004 Seniors: Jennifer Lovecchio (left) and Lindsay Niehaus

The game was deadlocked through 110 minutes of play despite the Terrapins firing a season-high 32 shots, including 11 on goal. Overall, Maryland outshot the Wolfpack 32-12, but could not find a way to but the ball into the net.

The Terps jumped on the offensive right from the start, racking up seven shots before NC State got its first one off. Maryland freshman Stevie Dunning had a breakaway in the 24th minute off a through-ball from Kimmy Francis, but Wolfpack goalkeeper Megan Connors batted the ball away for the save.

Francis found herself one-on-one with Connors in the 77th minute, but he shot went off the far right post. Freshman Carissa Gilbert collected the rebound and fired a shot with Connors out of position, but a NCSU defender was there to block the shot.

The Wolfpack came back to dominate play in the first overtime period, keeping the ball in the Maryland defensive half and outshooting the Terps 4-0.

The second overtime saw the Terps regain control of the game, forcing two corner kicks in the first four minutes of the period. Junior Simone Dekker had the best scoring chance for Maryland in the 107th minute when her shot from the right side of the penalty box skimmed the crossbar before spinning out over the top of the net.

With the game a 0-0 tie through four periods of play a shootout would determine the winner. NC State's Carol Tognetti went first for the Wolfpack, but Resnick made a diving save to her left to give the Terps the advantage. Francis converted the first PK to give Maryland a 1-0 lead. NCSU's Anna Helenius made good on the Wolfpack's second attempt to tie the shootout at 1-1, but Dekker responded by making her attempt to put the Terps back on top 2-1. NC State's Amy Graul tried to tie the shootout, but this time Resnick made the save diving to her right to keep the score 2-1. Maryland's Nataly Arias and NC State's Megan Sadler each converted their attempts to give Maryland a 3-2 edge with one more Maryland goal being the clincher. Gilbert, who missed seven matches earlier this season due to injury, fired the ball past Connors to give Maryland the victory and send the team to the ACC Quarterfinals.

Cary, N.C. - For the second time this season, the Maryland women's soccer team took No. 1 ranked North Carolina into a second overtime. But on Wednesday evening, for the second time this season, the Tar Heels were able to come out on top, this time by a 1-0 win in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament at the SAS Soccer Center in Cary, N.C.

"I'm really proud of the effort we showed today," said Maryland head coach Shannon Higgins-Cirovski . "Not only on defense, but our attack and midfield played tremendously. We got contributions from everyone on the field today."

North Carolina's All-American forward Heather O'Reilly took a cross from Jamie Gilbert and headed the game winner into the right corner of the net in the 103rd minute.

UNC pressured the Terrapin defense throughout the game, but sophomore goalkeeper Nikki Resnick was up to the challenge, stopping a season high 10 shots.

NCAA FIRST ROUND

LOYOLA (MD.)..... 0

State College, Md. - Mallory Mahar scored one goal and assisted on two others to lead the University of Maryland women's soccer team to a 3-1 victory over Loyola Friday night at Jeffery Field in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

"I'm really proud of the way we battled today," said Maryland head coach Shannon Higgins-Cirovski. "We connected well with each other and really controlled the flow of the game. Loyola played a tough game, but we stayed strong and finished our opportunities."

The first of those opportunities came in the ninth minute when Simone Dekker tossed a throw-in to Nataly Arias on the right side of the Loyola defensive zone. Arias was able to turn on her defender and find Mahar who deposited the ball into the left side of the Greyhound net to give the Terps a 1-0 lead.

Loyola regained its composure and built some momentum. Sophomore goalkeeper Nikki Resnick stopped two of the three Greyhound shots on goal in a 14 minute span in the middle of the first half. But the Terrapin defense refused to give in and was able to stay the Greyhound attack long enough for Maryland to regroup and regain the momentum late in the first half.

The Terps opened the second half just like they did the first - on the offensive. Mahar picked up her third assist of the season in the 53rd minute when she sent a long pass into the Loyola defensive third to freshman Kelly Rozumaski. Rozumalski was able to gather the ball, beat two defenders and fire a shot from 30 yards out that sailed into the top right corner of the net. The goal was the third of the season for Rozumalski and was two months to the day since her last goal, which came in Maryland's 2-1 win over No. 3 UCLA on Sept. 12.

With a two goal lead the Terps continued to pressure the Loyola defense. Stevie Dunning had a shot ricochet off the crossbar in the 61st minute and Dekker fired the rebound off the left post. But Dekker wouldn't be denied that easily. The junior midfielder took a pass from Mahar in the 69th minute deep in the left side of the Loyola zone. Dekker dribbled through the penalty box and into the six-yard box, where she fired a shot that deflected off Greyhound keeper Kate Gilfillan and into the net for a 3-0 lead.

NCAA SECOND ROUND
MARYLAND 1
No. 2 PENN STATE 0

State College, Pa. - The University of Maryland women's soccer team pull off arguably the biggest win in program history Sunday afternoon, beating No. 2-seed Penn State 1-0 at Jeffrey Field in State College.

Junior Mallory Mahar, a first team All-ACC selection, scored the game's lone goal in the 33rd minute off a header that trickled into the right lower 90 of the Penn State goal. Junior Danielle Malagari, who started the play on a free kick following a Nittany Lion foul, forwarded the ball to junior Kimmy Francis in the far right corner of the Penn State defensive zone. Francis crossed the ball to about the six yard line where Mahar dove to get a piece of the ball, redirecting it for the goal.

With the one goal lead the Terps turned up the defensive intensity challenging every Penn State possession. Sophomore goalkeeper Nikki Resnick stopped nine shots for Maryland on the afternoon, including two amazing stops in one-on-one situations with Penn State's All-American forward Tiffany Weimer.

The Nittany Lions had their best chance of the second half in the 67th minute when PSU defender Denay Riley gathers a losse ball inside the Terrapin 18-yard box and fired a shot into an open Terrapin net, but Malagari recovered to deflect the ball, which then hit off the far right post before being cleared out of the Maryland zone.

The win sends the Terps into the NCAA's Sweet Sixteen, where they will face the winner of the Auburn-Washington game. The time and location were not yet available.

GAME 20 - NOV. 20
NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN
MARYLAND 0
No. 15 WASHINGTON 1

Seattle, Wash. - The University of Maryland women's soccer team ended a tremendous run through the NCAA Tournament with a 1-0 loss to the University of Washington, Sunday evening at Husky Soccer Field in Seattle.

The Huskies appeared to jump on the board in the 13th minute, but UW was called for an offside violation that wiped out the goal.

Washington continued to press the attack and put the game's lone goal on the board in the 19th minute when two-time Pac-10 Player of the Year Tina Frimpong scored her 15th goal of the season. The play started with UW's Colby Branham firing a shot through a screen that deflected off of Terrapin goalkeeper Nikki Resnick. The ball bounced in front of the Maryland goal where Frimpong deposited it into the net.

Resnick kept the Terps in the contest with another tremendous performance. The sophomore from Boca Raton, Fla., stopped eight shots on the evening, including two one-on-one situations with Frimpong.

Offensively Maryland couldn't find its rhythm and struggled to find good scoring opportunities. The Terps were hampered by not having Kimmy Francis, the team's second leading scorer, at full strength due to a knee injury suffered in the Penn State win in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Maryland finishes its season with a record of 9-7-4 and made its first trip to the third round of the NCAA tournament since 1996 and its first ever since the field was expanded to 64 teams.

LUDWIG
HOME OF MARYLAND WO

Since its opening in 1995, state-of-the-art Ludwig Field has been the home of the Terrapin men's and women's soccer teams as well as playing host to numerous other local soccer events throughout the past eight years.

Due to the expanding horizon of Terrapin soccer and the growing interest in its achievement on the field, the University of Maryland embarked on a project that would bring the level of the facility on par with the excellence of the programs that played there.

The $2.5 million facility was dedicated on Sept. 16, 1995, and is surely a cornerstone of collegiate soccer throughout the nation.

The 4,000-seat facility is an integral part of new construction for Maryland athletics. The complex is fully lighted with an all-weather track and sodded Bermuda grass playing field.

The permanent lights allow for commonly scheduled night games. The lights also allow Maryland the ability to host NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference tournaments and nationally televised games. Since its opening, Ludwig Field has played host to nine NCAA Tournament games, including Maryland's 1-0 win over American on Nov. 15, 2002.

In addition to the collegiate games played at Ludwig Field, the complex has played host to numerous U.S. and professional soccer matches, as well. Among the teams who have used Ludwig Field as their home-away-from-home are the 2000 U.S. Women's National Team and the WUSA's own Washington Freedom.

In addition to the high level of competition created by the excellent playing surface at Ludwig Field, the complex was also created with the local soccer fan very much in mind. The field is located directly adjacent to Parking Lot 1 and close to the University Boulevard entrance.

The facility is named after lifetime Terrapin friends Bob and Louise Ludwig.

"STRIVE FOR CLARITY, BUT ACCEPT AND UNDERSTAND AMBIGUITY."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

AND WE ALSO HOPE YOU ENJOY THE JOURNEY.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

THE CAMPUS

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest-rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality. The average high school GPA of entering students has zoomed from 3.01 to nearly 3.90, and the average SATs are now more than 1270. The student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 76 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, exceeding $350 million last year. Private giving also has increased, and the university last year concluded its first campaign by topping its $350 million goal by more than $100 million. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, Fall 2002 enrollment was 25,240 undergraduate and 9,561 graduate students. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report rankings. Maryland now has 76 programs ranked among the nation's elite, and the university is ranked 18th nationally among public universities.

A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.

Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university fourth nationally in bachelor's degrees earned by African-American students at traditionally white schools. Maryland ranks first in African-American undergraduate degrees in social sciences and history.

The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 16 among the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic Region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 8 in information technology, No. 6 in faculty research and No. 7 in entrepreneurship.

In the only undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report–business and engineering–both the A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 17) and the College of Education (No. 22) were ranked among the top 25.

DR. C.D. MOTE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
CALIFORNIA '59
EIGHTH YEAR

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state-of-the-art sports complex; a high-tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

DEBORAH A. YOW

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR • 12TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow has just completed the 11th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's 11 years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable nine NCAA national championships and graduated its student athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada.

She was honored in December, 2004, by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics, and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She recently served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics." She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all 11 of the department's annual budgets (the first balanced budgets in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $53 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which her administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student-athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the dramatic upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team has appeared in 11 of the la 12 NCAA Tournaments, one of only six schools to do so.
- Women's basketball also won its way to the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and 200 advancing to the second round.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and playe in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory ov the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win seaso and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004.

Additionally, Maryland is one of only six universities to win a National Championshi in both basketball and football (UCLA, Michigan, Michigan State, Syracuse, Ohio Stat and Maryland).

- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laborator for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics in 2004, based on comprehensive criteri such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitiv excellence.
- Hired the Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Brenda Frese, as the ne women's basketball coach. In her third season at the helm, her team drew more tha 17,243 to a regular-season game and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., wh guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in his second year.
- Field Hockey played for the National Championship in 2001 and continues to be Final Four team.
- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championship from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium an practice field upgrades. The Academic Center was the first improvement, as it too priority over all other initiatives.
- The Terrapins have moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center, housing athleti department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events.
- In 2004-05, 13 Maryland teams competed in NCAA postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapi athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 11 years, Yo says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the To 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistentl inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools.. to work hard and smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that w place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the onl known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Yea in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketba (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highl organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbi Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be a excellent administrator.

A successful former basketball coach at the University of Kentucky and Universit of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and th University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Sair Louis University from 1990 through 1994.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and huma behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recentl stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrativ team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that w now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I ar equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfull support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Clu members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, D Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a stron and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, th Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of ou success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by assistant athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Laura Meckley (nght) works with the women's soccer team.

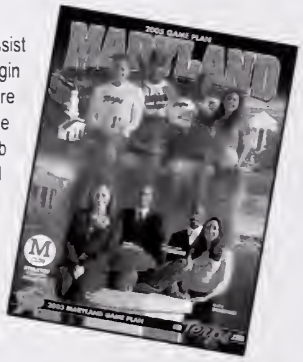
The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of ILP programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house last Fall. It features offices for two counselors, three learning specialist, and a graduate assistant; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.



CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA GUIDELINES

Credentials: Media and photographer credentials for events at Maryland's Ludwig Field may be obtained by working press, radio and television by writing or calling Patrick Fischer in the Maryland Athletic Media Relations Office, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. All requests should be submitted at least 48 hours prior to the event by phoning the Media Relations Office at (301) 314-7062. Since space is limited, accommodations are on a priority basis: daily newspapers and wire services, originating radio and television stations, national weekly or monthly publications, electronic media outlets, local and regional television crews. Priority is granted to members of the media who cover Maryland Athletics on a regular basis, and to visiting media members. Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment.

Services: The Media Relations Office will provide complete statistics at the conclusion of every home game. Programs containing rosters and event notes on each team will be provided for the working media.

Fax Machine: The Media Relations Office has one facsimile machine, located in Room 2725 of Comcast Center, which is available upon request. The fax number is (301) 314-9094.

Terps on the Web: For up-to-date game stories, statistics, schedules and results, and other Maryland athletic department information, please locate www.umterps.com on the Internet.

TROY TUCKER — WOMEN'S SOCCER SUPERVISOR

ASSOCIATE AD/ADMINISTRATION

Troy Tucker joined the Terrapins in August 2004 as the Associate Athletics Director for Administration after spending the previous 12 years as the Director of Athletics at Jamestown Community College, D'Youville College and most recently, Herkimer County Community College. In his role at Maryland, Tucker oversees the women's soccer, field hockey and swimming programs in addition to supervising the Media Relations Unit.

During his tenure at Herkimer from 1999-2004, Tucker operated the 21-sport, nationally competitive program with a balanced budget. He also oversaw the renovations of nine different facilities. Under Tucker's direction, Herkimer earned three-consecutive top-10 finishes in the Region III Director's Cup and finished 2003-04 ranked fifth among junior college athletic programs in the nation by NATYCAA Pepsi Cup. Three teams won five NJCAA National Championships and four won 13 regional titles. His teams also earned eight NJCAA Academic Team of the Year awards with the women's swimming & diving squad garnering the honor three times.

Prior to his tenure at Herkimer, Tucker was the Director of Athletics and Head Men's Basketball Coach at D'Youville College in Buffalo, N.Y., from 1996-99. While there, he headed the expansion of the athletics program from three to 11 teams, and was named National Athletic Director of the Year in 1998. At his arrival, Tucker oversaw the department's move to NCAA Division III status.

While serving as Director of Athletics at Herkimer, Tucker was also the Head Men's Basketball Coach for four seasons before becoming an Associate Dean in his final year. During the 2000-01 campaign, he was named Coach of the Year after his squad qualified for the Region III Championships for the first time in seven years, winning its first-round game.

A native of Scio, N.Y., Tucker began his collegiate career as an administrator at Jamestown-Olean Community College where he served from 1992-96. During his time there, he helped initiate the college's athletic program and was also the Jaguars' Head Men's Basketball Coach for a year.

Tucker is a 1991 graduate of SUNY Geneseo where he earned a bachelor of science in business. In 1992, he earned his master's from Springfield in athletics administration. Tucker and his wife, Rhonda, have a son, Griffin, and a daughter, Haley.
